DEDICATION

MR. PETER BOITA

Much has happened to us—a grind of classes and a crowded schedule of meetings, rehearsals, campaigns, elections, and ball games. Through all these momentous events, one name stands out above all others as the beacon in the darkness—one PETER BOITA.

Words just cannot express how much it has meant to us to be able to work with such a wonderful person as Mr. Boita. The Ludlow Lion cannot include all our memories—especially the anecdotes with which he has inundated us!—but we do want to preserve for posterity the hope that we may reason out our lives as well as he has taught us to reason out our “math”; that is, that we may know how to “hold the phone!”

Although his illness prevented his being with us for the first four months of senior “math,” his interest in us continued and grew constantly. We appreciate his interest even more now that he has returned and gives so unselfishly of his time and effort in our behalf. What we have gained intellectually we can never lose, nor can we purchase it; its value is intrinsic. To Mr. Boita goes much of the credit for the broadening of our educational horizon.

Therefore, to Mr. Boita, who has contributed so very greatly to our fund of knowledge, to our memories of yesterday, and to our dreams of tomorrow, we the senior class of the Ludlow High School, proudly dedicate the 1960 edition of THE LUDLOW LION!

Time was unto Mercury and seemed to pass with the speed of light. Knowledge surged through our minds and claimed our existence. Our thirst for experience and maturity led to the realization that success as a class is achieved only through unification. For us, Zeus decreed our objective in his inscription in the clouds encircling Mount Olympus—"United We Stand!"

Engulfed by a pervasive warmth are we as we contemplate the fulfillment of our goal and the memories of the last four years.

Through unstinting efforts, we shall yield a harvest beneficial to us and our posterity, a harvest of peace and security through democracy—that harvest achieved by the implementation of our basic tenet: The Class of 1960, United We Stand!

TO THE CLASS OF 1960:

A yearbook is a storehouse of memories. Twenty years from now—when the Class of 1960 rereads these pages—time, distance, age, and position will be swept away by the return of memories of youth.

This class will have good things to remember. All too briefly have I known all of you of the class of 1960. What I have seen in your classroom performance, in your fine extracurricular presentations and your wonderful record in the field of sports convinces me that you people have profited greatly from your high school education.

On behalf of all those connected with the Ludlow Public Schools, I wish you “Godspeed!” and all the best in the years ahead.

GEORGE E. RUSSELL, Principal

TO THE CLASS OF 1960:

As principal of the high school I have been associated with the members of this class during four years of double sessions in which we have had many problems to meet and conquer. I have been proud of your scholastic, athletic and extracurricular achievements despite the difficulties encountered and appreciate your willingness to accept the responsibilities of your status as students in the high school under somewhat adverse conditions.

Just as you have adjusted yourselves to the conditions of your schooling so do you leave now with as much information and knowledge as your industry has produced. Your records have now been completed as far as your active high school career is concerned and your yearbook may well serve as a fitting testimonial to that career.

To those who have achieved distinction may I remind you that success and fame are only transitory and that you must continue to aim high and work industriously so that your achievements may be greater ones. To those whose high school careers have not been so successful may I advise you that the future is one which you may shape by diligent application so that your life careers may be more successful.

To all of you, I extend congratulations for your part in making this Class of 1960 a memorable one and extend to each of you my sincere wishes for health, success and happiness in the years to come. A special tribute is offered to the members of the yearbook staff whose application has resulted in this splendid document—The Yearbook of the Class of 1960.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To the Class of 1960:

To the members of the class of 1960, I would extend my most sincere thanks and appreciation for your having given me the opportunity to lead you through our fourth and most memorable school year. With hard work and cooperation, this class has brought to Ludlow High School and to its members lasting recognition, a fact which, in itself, goes to prove that this year and in previous years, the class chose well its class officers, homeroom representatives, and chairmen and members of the various committees; all of these people contributed to the achievement of the class and the fame of the school.

The senior year is a year in which every member of the class sights a goal so that plans and efforts can be started toward the eventual achievement of that goal. The skillful cooperation of several teachers guided us in this planning of our future. To the four class advisors and other members of the faculty we express sincere appreciation for their guidance and assistance in the production of our class projects—the Booster Day Dance, SPALY, The Ludlow Lion, Class Day, and our Class Banquet. The secretarial and custodial staffs are deserving, too, of our gratitude for their patient tolerance of our adolescently zealous interruptions of their routine as we ply them with “useless” questions! Finally, we convey our most earnest thanks to Mr. Russell, our principal, for his able organization, management, and supervision of our school and its activities; without his steady hand at the helm, our class ship would never have made port!

In conclusion, I wish every member of the class the best of luck in the years to come; I repeat that I am, indeed, proud, honored, and grateful to be your permanent class president. I hope and expect to see all of you at our first class reunion in 1965 and at every subsequent reunion.

Sincerely,

William J. Kolodziey Jr.

CLASS HISTORY

"No man is an island," said John Donne. We have learned from history that to be united is to be strong. We, the class of 1960, have united our efforts to do our best for our state, which is located in the country of Ludlow High. Our first united effort as a state was to elect governing officers. As our Governor we elected Christine Saracino, while the Lieutenant-Governor was James Duquette. Secretary of State was Barbara Romanko, and Barbara Budnick was State Treasurer. The representatives from the various districts of our state were Sandra Drost, Robert Gosciminski, Michael Hnatiw, Sandra Nietupski, and Ann Tkachuk. Drawing our state together that first year was the first major activity, a class banquet with the theme "Candy-Land Carnival." We rounded out that year with a class picnic at Forest Park.

Our second year produced a slight change in leadership. Irene Szlosek was elected Governor, re-elected Lieutenant-Governor was James Duquette. Dulce Chaves became Secretary of State, and Barbara Budnick served a second term as State Treasurer. Chosen to represent their districts in the Council were Arminda Augusto, Betty Esteves, Jaqueline LaBier, Sandra Nietupski, and Christine Saracino. Under their united efforts we held a highly successful class banquet, the so-called "Turkey Trot," which was followed in due course of time by an equally successful picnic.

At last, we began our Junior Year! United, we had not only survived but prospered through our first two years. Now, we were prepared to be equally successful during our last two years. We began the year with the election of officers: Charles Milroy, Governor; Dulce Chaves, Lieutenant-Governor; Michael Hnatiw, State Treasurer; and Barbara Romanko, Secretary of State. Susan Bochnia, Nancy Fidalgo, Patricia Karr, Sandra Nietupski, and Francis Tokarz became our district representatives. The October Junior Dance was a tremendous success. Then, before we could catch our breaths, we were in the midst of planning the Junior Promenade. After months of preparation, the great evening arrived, and we spent four wonderful hours in "Dreamer's Paradise"! Many of us must have had somber memories the next week, for we had to realize that we had flown through three years and had only one more to enjoy.

Finally came that long-awaited Senior year! We are more mature this year, and so, we studied the characters of the people we were to elect, for they will be our permanent—our lifelong—officers. We have selected William Kolodziey, Governor; Christine Saracino, Lieutenant-Governor; Barbara Romanko, Secretary of State; Mary Lou Avezzie, State Treasurer. As Representatives to the Governor's Council are Susan Bochnia, Gail Feicha, Sandra Nietupski, and William Strempek. Then, several of us have volunteered for staff work on our Senior yearbook, The Ludlow Lion; editors of this publication are Barbara J. Romanko, Editor-in-Chief; Patricia G. Carville, Assistant Editor; Barbara A. Budnick, Art Editor; Charles Jack, Business Manager; and Arminda Augusto, Chief Typist.

The first activity of our senior year was the Booster Day Dance; we enjoyed it only as seniors, who know they are doing things for the last time, can enjoy such a function. After a short respite, we began preparations for our Senior Show. We shall never forget the anxiety and gaiety that rehearsal days brought. SPALY, the Society for the preservation and Acceleration of Leap Year, we called our production, and it, too, was a huge success. Now, as we endeavor to complete our yearbook by the publication deadline, we anticipate the Junior Promenade, Class Day, the Class Banquet, and Graduation.

In conclusion this historian recalls both the joy and the sorrow we have experienced these last four years; we see that what we have accomplished has been achieved only because we have stayed united through trouble and united in joy. It is, therefore, right and proper that our motto be "The Class of 1960—United We Stand!"

CLASS POEM

*The ivy walls we're leaving,
Have brought so many joys,
The wondrous thrill of meeting,
So many girls and boys.*

*The years we can't recapture
Nor crazy things we've done,
Nor sounds of boist'rous laughter,
Nor trophies that we've won.*

*The multitudinous mem'ries
That dance before our eyes
Have all slipped by so quickly,
It's hard to realize.*

*The strain of first assemblies,
Which only freshmen know,
Is replaced by mounting confidence,
That passage of years must show.*

*Athletic games we've attended,
Cheering 'til voices were strained,
The realization of a victory,
The joy of seeing teams reign.*

*Report cards, too, we greeted
Sans dread or even tears!
In fact, we garnered glory
As progress crowned our years.*

*So, plant we our sprig of ivy,
Which is just a meager sign
Of the mark the Class of '60

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of the Ludlow High School, illustrious and famous to the ends of the earth and the corners of the universe for our unpredictable nothingness, and fearing that our minds are a little unstable—far be it from us to know!—do hereby certify, swear, and sign in the blood gushing from our labors over homework, this document—our last Will and Testament.

Collectively, we, the mental giants of 1960, bequeath to the ADMINISTRATION and the FACULTY the vain but undying hope of instructing brilliant, studious, capable, confident geniuses like us—the Class of 1960.

We, the Einsteins of the Ludlow High School, bequeath to the JUNIORS the ability to mix crazy concoctions and derive fragrant perfume to enhance the scent in the corridors of Ludlow High.

We, the DaVinci's of Ludlow High, leave to the SOPHOMORES, the most modern, sophisticated, magnificent, and unusual art adorning the walls of the cluttered classrooms—our Mona Lisa's—George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

We, the would-be Hamlets and Portias of the Ludlow High School, bequeath to the FRESHMEN, three more years in Room 207 with the wonderful feeling of having Mr. William Shakespeare's disapproving eye watching successive classes mutilate the English language and his comic (to us!) tragedies.

Individually, we bequeath the following:

JUDY ABAIR wills her unused orange peels to GAIL KRAWEC and CAROL KULIG.

ARMINDA AUGUSTO leaves to FRANCES SAMBOR and GRACE DIAS the long hours of enjoyment in reading Macbeth. MARY LOU AVEZZIE leaves to her sister, PEGGY, her ability to get along so wonderfully with WILLIAM ROONEY.

TRACY BALDRATE wills to his brother, GENE, his ability to skip football practice legitimately and to be able to find soap in the shower room.

BOB BATES leaves to ELAINE SMITH all the extra points on MR. HURLEY'S Problems tests during football season.

ELIZABETH BATOR leaves her parade boots to MAXINE RICHARDS.

RONALD BELLISARIO leaves his love for crow hunting to DAVE BERNARD and STEVE GOSCIMINSKI so they can carry on the tradition of getting up at four in the morning.

SUSAN BOCHNIA leaves to ALICE BOJAN and JEAN TWAROG the gossip she exchanged during the "gab fests" in Senior gym class.

MICHAEL BONSIIEWICZ leaves to CHESTER HAWRYLCIW the secret of sneaking a smoke during school hours and sleeping six periods a day.

JOYCE BOULRICE leaves her natural blonde hair to the memory of SANDRA DROST.

DONALD BOURCIER leaves all his guesses to MR. PARE'S future classes. God rest their defeated souls!

IDA BRUNI leaves to her sister, DONNA, and the SOPHOMORE class the trials and tribulations and the fun of being a Senior in a Sophomore class.

BARBARA BUDNICK leaves to her brother, TOMMY, her tremendous love for looking up strange new words in English class—"Quick like the Proverbial Rabbit!!!"

ROGER BURRAGE leaves to VERONICA STRAZ the valence chart and all the wonders of that great science—Chemistry.

RICHARD BUSHEY leaves to the library, Mad magazines so others can absorb its comprehensive educational value.

ROBERT CARNEIRO leaves to PHYLLIS FABROCINI his ability to beat off the other students with his soccer shoes in order to be the first one in the lunch line.

DONALD CARRINGTON leaves the art of straight, "A" to his sister, BARBARA.

PATRICIA CARVILLE leaves JUDY HUMBER carrots, cookies, and milk as brain food to aid her in writing her weekly short subjects for the Springfield Republican.

JANICE CASEY leaves her seat in bookkeeping to anyone who can't add.

CAROL CHARLAND leaves to ALICE BOJAN her seat in the cafeteria and also a bottle of bicarb.

TOM CELLILLI leaves his curly hair, friendliness on Thursday night, and ability to make friends in Easthampton to the up and-coming Romeo of the Junior Class, PETER.

JOHN CHAVES leaves to everyone at the school office an enlarged portrait of himself as a lasting memento of their number one pest. May they place it in a position which will allow them to hurl darts, pencils, or other such objects at it when they get the urge to do so.

EVELYN CZUPRYNA leaves her rule "Silence is Golden" to BARBARA SOMLA and NANCY MASTERLARZ.

EUNICE DeMIRANDA leaves . . . amen.

SANDRA DROST leaves to her brother, BOBBY, all the subjects she had except Home Nursing.

MARY-ANN DRYJOWICZ leaves to MR. BOITA all the wigs used in the Senior Show.

THOMAS DUFFY leaves to ALICE BOJAN one basketball game and a quick two points, the hard way.

ROGER DUMAIS leaves his ability to heckle Mr. Schmidt of his inability to operate a movie projector to anyone who wants it. JAMES DUQUETTE leaves to PAULA HOWELL and ELAINE CARROLL the answer to "Who Won the Civil War"; found in every history book.

SUZANNE DYNAC leaves to JANICE PHOENIX her seat in shorthand and all the troubles that went with it.

CAROL EHLERS wills successes and sufferances to BETSY LIVERMORE and LINDA MERKEL.

ELIZABETH ESTEVES wills to GRACE DIAS the inability to take physical education because of continually wearing multi-colored kneesocks.

GAIL FEICHA leaves to her sister, BRENDA, her love of sacrificing a half hour of sleep in the morning to slap peanut butter on bread in order to survive the school lunches.

LYNDA FIDALGO leaves to her sister, BRENDA, the book she never read entitled "How to Get and Keep a Man in Your Senior Year," hoping that she will read it.

NANCY FIDALGO leaves to FRAN SAMBOR and ROBERTA PAOLOTTI her transporting service for the soccer players.

KATHERINE FOURNIER leaves to her brother, JOHN, her ability to play basketball after being exhausted from that long walk to school in the morning.

GAIL GERSHOWITZ leaves her seat in 207 to say memory passages at lunch time to LINDA JO SANFORD.

MEL GERSHOWITZ leaves to BRIAN SMITH and CHET RYBA his furtive, but otherwise harmless, capers.

CAROL GOODREAU wills her ability to recite orals with the utmost ease to JEAN TROMBLEY.

JEANNETTE GOODREAU wills to her brother her ability to do homework in MR. SAVOIA'S class without getting caught. JAMES GOODWIN leaves to LARRY BILL his genius for smoking in the showers at the "Rec" without getting his cigarette wet.

ROBERT GOSCIMINSKI leaves to MIKE CARROLL his record of 3 wins and 37 losses in Chess Club. May it always be a source of joy and amusement to him.

CHARLES GRAVELIN leaves to his cousin, WENDELL HEWITT, his desk and all papers on the floor around it in his homeroom 207.

ANN GUAY wills to BOB and TOM DVORCHAK her ability to trudge up the half-mile hill on the way home from school. Good Luck!

JOSEPH HALGAS wills to RICHARD HENRICHON his football jersey, No. 20.

MICHAEL HAWRYLCIW, JR. wills the sneakers someone stole from him to his brother, CHET, if he can find them.

ERNEST HIERSCHE leaves the school lunch to whoever has a cast-iron stomach and a good will to digest it.

HERMAN HIERSCHE leaves to any aspiring JUNIOR the tears he shed because he was not elected class flirt, which he really thinks he is.

JANET HIERSCHE leaves to her three sisters, NANCY, SUSAN, and JUDY, her ability to find a parking place in the morning and have someone move her little car to the sidewalk.

MIKE HNATIW leaves his diminishing slab of G.I. soap to any JUNIOR who wants to share it with SOPHOMORES and FRESHMEN.

JUDITH HOPE leaves to the JUNIORS the joy of getting MR. HURLEY in an election year and listening to his ten good reasons why Kennedy should be our next President.

CHARLES JACK JR. leaves to his sister, JEAN, the joy of sitting in 115 with water from a leaky faucet in Chemistry lab. dripping on his nose.

PAMELA JACK leaves to BARBARA ONDRE her undersized locker and contents.

ARTIE JANES leaves his chemistry lab. book with all the answers filled in to any JUNIOR who can afford the price.

DOROTHY JANIK wills her swollen fingers and broken nails from typing enthusiastically with the misconception of beating the bell to CAROL REMILLARD.
NANCY JAROSZ leaves her ability to jam up the keys in typing 24 to any good jammer.
GAIL JASNOCHA leaves to her sister, CYNTHIA, her luck and ability of getting Mrs. Cormier three periods right in a row.
ANDREW JOHNSTON wills his first two trig marks to MR. PARE, wherever he is.
JOSEPH JORGE wills his ability of making MRS. ZIWOT chuckle in English to DAVID SZABLA.
PATRICIA KARR bequeaths one gym towel, two sneakers, and one slightly moldy gym suit to BOBBY AMOS if he can pass the physical for Girls' Gym Class.
CHRISTINE KAWALEC leaves, her talent as being a number one "Spaly" girl to CAROL KULIG.
VICTOR KERTENIS leaves his ability to do his "trig" homework during MR. BOITA'S trig class to MICKEY SZLOSEK.
BARBARA KIVIOR leaves to her sister SANDRA and BETTY ABAIR her cheering uniform with the hope they have as much fun as she did.
WILLIAM KOLODZIEY JR. leaves his forensic ability to CHARLES WOOLSEY, with the hope that his histrionics will be the realization of his oratorical aspirations; may he achieve this goal by emulating BILL'S willingness, constant tenacity, and manifest verbosity.
WILLIAM KOSS leaves all his fun with MISS MURTAGH to his brother, ANTON, with the advice that if he wants to pass in her room, just smile. P.S. He didn't.
FRED KOZYRA leaves to his sister, PHYLL, the walls in MISS SAULNIER'S class, which have passed through him.
CAROL LACROIX leaves to LORRAINE ROBERTS the gum she tacked under chairs, desks, and in books.
DONALD LEVER leaves to his sister, LINDA, his slightly used lolly-pop from the Senior Show.
DONALD LIBISZEWSKI leaves his unused polio shot to anyone who doesn't mind if the doctor misses the vein several times.
JUDY LIMA leaves to WILLIE PIANOWSKI and GRACIE DIAS the privilege of driving the school car, if it's still in one piece after the Seniors are through with it.
CAS LOPATA leaves to his brother, JOHNNY, all the odoriferous iodine experiments in chemistry with the hope that he will survive.
SANDRA LUSIGNAN leaves to FRANKIE NIETUPSKI a part in the girls' gym class he always wanted.
RUDY MAGIERA leaves to the three B's, BASSLER, BARKER, and BRUNELLE, the inspiration to continue making Maximum Honor Roll.
ROBERT MAKUCH leaves to DAVE MARKIEWICZ, DAVE SZABLA, and JOHN CAMERON his ability to get to East-hampton just in time for the basketball game and discover that the tickets have been sold out.
WALTER MAYOSKI wills his enjoyment of driving to endanger to JIM COREY.
DAVID McCHESNEY wills the chance to have vacations in MISS MURTAGH'S class, when she is sick in the winter months, to BOBBY HOWES and TWANGER MOORE.
SUSAN MEUNIER leaves the trials and tribulations of the Senior year to any up-and-coming JUNIOR who has the misconception that it's fun.
CHARLES MILROY wills his position on the football team to DICK PASQUINI, who was too willing to replace him this year.
HELEN MONDRY bequeaths her industrious uselessness to AMELIA MAKUCH and LUCY SAMBOR.
THERESA MOSIO wills to CAROL BERSELLI the tremendous burden of taking annual physicals.
ROBERT MUCHA leaves to any unfortunate SOPHOMORE or FRESHMAN his position on the basketball team (sitting next to MR. KURTY).
ROBERT MURTY bequeathes outlineosis, summerosis, and oral-osis to all fortunate underclassmen.
NEIL NICOLL leaves the knowledge he gained by operating his own TV repair shop to MR. FRYER, who he feels could use it in explaining AC and DC circuits.
SANDRA NIETUPSKI leaves her post on Student Council to anyone who can remain rational after being kicked, mangled, and trampled by overanxious underclassmen.

CYRIL ONDRE JR. leaves to LAWRENCE MADDEN his last-minute dash for the bus in a turmoil of homework papers flying, and his knees shaking as he gulps the last fragments of his breakfast.
JACK PALATINO leaves his six used ash trays, six inch stiletto, and his loaded soccer ball to next year's SOCCER FORWARDS.
HARRY PETROLATI leaves to BILL KOSCHER all of his patience.
BRIAN PHELAN leaves his title Playboy to DAVE SZABLA.
CHARLES PLANKEY leaves to SOME JUNIOR the ability to get up in the morning, pick up his sleepy friends, drive to school on slippery pavements, fly up the stairs of the school, and be 30 seconds late.
MARCIA PODOSEK wills her headaches and ability to meet deadlines as Co-Editor of the Hi-News to SUSAN BASSLER.
CAROL POLLITT wills to her brother, BILL, her ability to hit continually the overhead lighting in the auditorium with her powerful serve in volleyball.
PATRICIA POLYS leaves to JACKIE HOPE her love for basketball players along with three years of fun with the Cheerleaders.
BARBARA PRZYBYCIEN leaves her dirty gym towel to AN-NETTE WALAS.
DAVID QUAGLINI leaves his gym clothes to anybody because everybody uses them anyway.
LUCILLE ROBERTS leaves to her sister, LORRAINE, her gift of gab.
BARBARA ROMANKO leaves her prehistoric book, filled completely with removable pages, containing Shakespeare's Macbeth, to anyone who wants it.
BARBARA SALETNIK wills to ANN BOURDEAU, GERALDINE STRYCHARZ, and CAROL REMILLARD the ability to give fun-filled parties.
STANLEY SAMBOR leaves to his sister, LUCY, his ability to fail MR. BOITA'S Home Room.
CHRISTINE SARACINO leaves her cheerleading and basketball uniforms to her sisters, ANN and JEAN.
SANDRA STERNALA leaves to HELENA MIGACY and GERRY STRYCHARZ her jolly attitude toward calories.
BARBARA ST. JOHN leaves her ability to sing soprano in a bass tone to anyone who wants it.
BILL STREMPEK leaves to DAVE SZABLA the jubilation he felt when he received word the two-hour parking limit was lifted from the hospital parking lot.
IRENE SZLOSEK leaves to MARGARET WARREN her friendliness and pleasing smile.
HENRY TATRO leaves the remnants of several hot rods that never started with a tightly wound rubber band, to MR. KURTY.
FRANCES TOKARZ wills to her sister, NANCY, the ability to get lost in the shuffle in the lockers and lunch lines.
STANLEY TOKARZ leaves his parking place to anyone who can beat MR. BOITA to it.
ELLEN TREMBIAY wills to MILTON PROVOST her ability for never having detention.
ROBERT TUTTLE wills his seat in the back of MRS. ZIWOT'S room to anyone who wants to listen to MISS SAULNIER.
JOYCE VANWYCK wills to MICHELE ALVES her stall in gym with her ability to rush to make classes after taking showers.
MARIAN VAUTRAIN wills MR. HURLEY and his great understanding of women to all the JUNIOR GIRLS.
EDWARD VIVIER leaves his record for having handed in one homework assignment out of 1,000 during his four years of high school to any eighth grader who feels he can better it.
RICHARD WAITE leaves his last-minute studying in home room to JEANNINE TREMBLEY.
BEVERLY WATSON leaves her space in MISS SMITH'S Home Nursing to ELIZABETH PETROLATI.
SANDRA WHITE tosses her baton to her sister, SUSIE.
CAROLLE WHITTIER leaves her little black cahier which has to be paged over to whoever wants it.
MARIE ZAGRANSKI leaves to MR. BENJAMIN enough jars of peanut butter and marshmallow to make a sufficient quantity of sandwiches to last him throughout the following school year.

We declare the above document to be our last will and testament and promise to haunt all who try to defy our wishes. We appoint Miss Florence M. Saulnier of the faculty to be the executrix and warn her that any attempts to contest this will should be dealt with severely.

Given in the executive chamber of the senior class—Room 207 of the Ludlow High School—this eighth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand and sixty, and of our independence, the first.

CLASS PROPHECY

I, Futura, Goddess of the future, contemplate the thundering of the heavens and the position of the constellations and do hereby prophesy that the following shall come true in the year 1980.

President of the United States, BILL KOLODZIEY, kicked the pigskin 49.9 yards to start the annual Lions' Bowl Classic. JOE HALGAS and CHUCK MILROY, who have broken the world's record of injuries inflicted during one game, are exhibiting their skills and many talents in this game. To add color and confusion, LYNDAL FIDALGO and PAT POLYS are still cheering for their old flames.

By special request, JACK PALATINO, MIKE HNATIW, JOE JORGE, and ROBERT CARNEIRO have flown in to referee the Western Massachusetts Soccer Tournament. All the athletes are staying at ROBERT BATES' new motel "Boober's Bungalow."

Flash!!! TRACY BALDRATE, better known as Santa Claus to millions of kids, is trying to sue CHARLES PLANKEY, who has struck oil at the North Pole. Santa's little elves—MIKE HAWRYLCIW and ROBERT GOSCIMINSKI—have been scolded for an attempt to stampede a herd of reindeer over PLANKEY'S immaculate equipment.

Now that CHARLES "WALDO" JACK has his flying platform license, he is looking for volunteers for a slow trip anywhere. Hopeful candidates include RICHARD BUSHEY and MARCIA PODOSEK, and NEIL NICOLL and GAIL JASNOCHA. Preparing the platform for departure are those notorious mechanics ED VIVIER, JOHN CHAVES, and HENRY TATRO.

Meanwhile on the political scene, BARBARA ROMANKO has been named Secretary of State. Her favorite page boys are RONALD BELLISARIO and ROGER BURRAGE. Also in Washington, MICHAEL BONSIWICZ and PATTI KARR have opened the first Beatnik eatery, "Bonsie's Espresso." Incidentally, appearing here twice a day will be JIMMY GOODWIN, who as "Coffee Jim" has acquired fame as the beatnik with the longest beard. The owners serve a new form of espresso coffee devised by HERMAN HIERSCHE and BARBARA SALETNIK.

Representing Massachusetts in Congress are Senators ROGER DUMAIS and CAROL EHLERS and Representative DAVID QUAGLINI.

Pressuring Congress for a new high school in Ludlow is DAVID McCHESNEY, a licensed lobbyist. DONALD LIBISZEWSKI is head of the Department of Justice and with his aid, CASS LOPATA, is pondering ways to remove the underworld from our nation.

We now take you to a modern, exclusive club on the French Riviera, where five American authorities on fashion, SUSAN BOCHNIA, ELIZABETH BATOR, IDA BRUNI, IRENE SZLOSEK, JACKIE LABIER, and ANN GUAY, are in controversy over the women's clothing recently designed by the world-famous BRIAN PHELAN, ROBERT MURTY, and STAN TOKARZ.

The famous surgeon JAMES DUQUETTE is going to perform a delicate operation to remove a sliver from a thumb. "Going under the knife" will be ROBERT TUTTLE. The doctor's assistants are BEVERLY WATSON, SANDRA WHITE, and CAROL WHITTIER, JOYCE VanWYCK will have the difficult job of placing the sliver in a preservative for further study by scientist HARRY PETROLATI.

Town Treasurer, MARY AVEZZIE, after begging, borrowing and stealing—all legally, of course—provided the money for the new Ludlow Hospital. Donating much of the money is multi-millionaire CHARLES GRAVELIN. Plans for the new hospital were drawn by the great engineers DON LEVER and ERNEST HIERSCHE. However, due to faulty calculations in the plans the hospital stood for only two days!

In Hollywood, TOMMY CELLILLI'S great hit record "Mac the Beth" has reached the ten million mark. MARION VAUTRAIN is busy rushing around creating his fan club. She has already recruited HELEN MONDRY, THERESA MOSIO, and LUCILLE ROBERTS. While we are still on the topic of Hollywood, director THOMAS DUFFY, whose famous sunglasses and sports coats are designed by PAMELA JACK, has just begun the production of a fabulous new movie called "Mighty Moose," starring the one and only ROBERT MUCHA and the rising young starlet SUSAN MEUNIER.

Working in New York, CAROL POLLITT, a daring detective, and GAIL FEICHA, another policewoman, are working diligently together with the "Unthinkers," STANLEY SAMBOR, PETER KLASSANOS, DONALD CARRINGTON, and RICHARD WAITE, to discover the originator of the drive to tax inhalers of automobile fumes.

We interrupt this prophecy to bring you a special bulletin by MARY-ANN DRYJOWICZ, your news reporter. JUDITH LIMA, owner of the luxury slow jet known as the "Lima Liner," announces that early today the liner had a mishap while it was en route to a mink farm owned by CHRISTINE SARACINO and ROBERT MAKUCH. Piloting the plane were student drivers ARMINDA AUGUSTO and GAIL GERSHOWITZ. The "hosts with the most" were MEL GERSHOWITZ, FRED KOZYRA, and ARTIE JANES. No wonder the airline had a mishap!

SANDRA NIETUPSKI, head of the Massachusetts Nursery Association has just appointed five capable mothers, JOYCE BOULRICE, ELIZABETH ESTEVES, KATHY FOURNIER, BARBARA KIVIOR, and SANDRA STERNALA to her board of directors. CAROL LaCROIX and RUDY MAGIERA are denying vehemently that their little darlings are the nursery's pranksters.

Recently elected "Teacher of the Year" is BARBARA BUDNICK, who has finally succeeded (by use of advanced formulae) in teaching WALTER MAYOWSKI, CYRIL ONDRE, and BARBARA ST. JOHN that one apple pie does not equal one peach pie.

Now hear this! MARIE ZAGRANICZNY has outplayed Liberace in BARBARA PRZYBYCIEN'S Klassy Klassics Music Hall. Chief Justice JUDY ABAIR says the reason for Liberace's failure was that BILL KOSS blew out the candelabra!

The latest world-shaking events, as reported by columnists CHRISTINE KAWALEC, FRANCES TOKARZ, and EVELYN CZUPRYNA, are that BILLY STREMPEK has been elected to replace Alfred E. Newman in Mad Magazine through a Ludlow-wide poll, the official ballot counter being PAT CARVILLE; winner of the skiing events at the Brave Valley Winter Olympics was JANET HIERSCHE, who finished first but was disqualified because she retained only one ski, a "Pyrrhic victory," our newspaper columnists said; NANCY JAROSZ has just finished her book, The Tips I Gave the Boston Celtics, and SANDRA DROST has developed a new type of peroxide—"Rinse It Now, Turn Blonde Ls" ...

DONALD BOURCIER and EUNICE DeMIRANDA have opened their own chain stores and are competing valiantly and defiantly with other national chains. They hired JANICE CASEY and CAROL CHARLAND to cut the red ribbon at the grand opening of their stores!

JUDY HOPE and SUZANNE DYNAK have devised an extra-chewy bubble gum. Chief testers are CAROL and JEANNETTE GOODREAU, ELLEN TREMBLAY, and VICTOR KERTENIS. Victor has competed successfully in a bubble-blowing contest against such bubble testers as ANDY JOHNSTON, SANDRA LUSIGNAN, DOROTHY JANIK, and NANCY FIDALGO. Victor blew such a big bubble he is still floating around in space!

With said utterances, I, Futura, have taken my last look at the class of 1960. Futura is tired; Futura has made her last prognostication; Futura must seek the "big sleep"! Where better than on Station 42, the world's most remote station on this "Plutonian shore"!

ALMA MATER

Handwritten musical score for Alma Mater. The score is written on five systems of staves. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The music is in 4/4 time, with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The score is written in a clear, legible hand.

Stu-dents all, lets raise our voi-ces, sing-ing praise of Lud-low

Will he make it?

Don't stand there and look—do something!

It will never make it, Grumps!

Time for a substitute—a tall one!
